

King's Park; Stirling's Overlooked Jewel

Saturday 31st August 2013

Smith Art Gallery and Museum, Dumbarton Rd, Stirling 10am - 3.30 pm

Stirling's unique castle landscapes are of major European and Scottish importance; the area includes the public park, Gowane Hills, Knot, Butt Park, Park Dyke and Haining.

Six expert speakers will discuss; History - Archaeology - Architecture, the Park's Changing Role and its Scottish and European Importance

Weather permitting a site visit 3.30 - 5pm; some steep sections, suitable footwear required!

No need to book; a Free Event but with Collection for Smith Museum; Own Lunch (note that the Smith has an excellent cafe providing meals, snacks).

Further Information including full programme from;
John@scothist.fsnet.co.uk or from <http://www.johnscothist.com/>