

Landscape Encounters II: Exploring Environmental and Heritage Histories of Scotland

UNIVERSITY OF STIRLING

Wednesdays 7-9 pm

The Smith Museum and
Art Gallery
Lecture Theatre

Programme

- |        |   |
|--------|---|
| 28 Oct | Glen Almond: Landscape palimpsest,Richard Oram  |
| 04 Nov | Bannockburn 1314: What did the place look like?Richard Tipping  |
| 25 Nov | Medieval climate change in Scotland: 1250-1350,Alasdair Ross  |
| 09 Dec | An illicit whisky chaser: Rediscovering thehidden history of whisky production in 18 th and19 th century Scotland, Clare Wilson |
| 16 Dec | Picts, Scots and Gaels: What's new? Sally Foster  |

Landscape Encounters II is the second in a series of free public lectures designed to showcase to a wider audience some of the past and current research projects undertaken by the staff at the Centre for Environment, Heritage and Policy at the University of Stirling.

For further information contact Dr. Catherine Mills c.j.mills@stir.ac.uk