SCOTTISH LOCAL HISTORY FORUM
www.slhf.org

The Scottish Local History Forum is the umbrella organisation for all individuals and organisations interested in local history in Scotland.

It publishes a journal 3 times a year, organises an annual conference, campaigns on behalf of local history, compiles occasional reference works, and generally keeps those involved in local history in touch with Scottish activities.

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP

October 2011 - September 2012

Individuals - £20 (1 copy of each journal)
Groups and Societies - £26 (£30 - 2 copies)
Student rate - £10
Overseas rates as above, plus postage.

DIRECTIONS

See Maryhill Burgh Halls website www.maryhillburghhalls.org.uk

The Halls are at 10-24 Gairbraid Avenue, Glasgow, G20 8YE, the junction of Maryhill Road and Gairbraid Avenue, across the road from Maryhill Library. Enter via archways (shared with Leisure Centre). Look for Firemen Gates.

BY CAR: Maryhill Road (A81; exit M8 at Junction 17). Access to Gairbraid Ave is pedestrianised, so leave Maryhill Road at Kelvindale Road, turn right at Burnside Ave, then right into Gairbraid Ave, where there is some on-street parking if you wish to deliver items for display tables.

BY BUS:

From Glasgow City Centre:

40 (Hope St at Central Station)

61 (Union St at Central Station)

119 (Buchanan St Bus Station)

From Hillhead subway station:

23 (northbound to Summerston)

BY TRAIN:

Nearest mainline station is Maryhill, to north along Maryhill Road.

Nearest subways are Hillhead and St Georges Cross, to south. All are about 20 mins walk.

Maryhill Burgh Halls have recently been restored to a high standard (including a loop system). Twenty stained glass panels by Stephen Adam showing crafts and trades in the late 19th century, together with ten new panels, are well worth seeing.
